Governor Perry Appoints Rangel to Board of Pardons and Paroles.

Austin, TX (October 31, 2014) — Governor Rick Perry has appointed Federico Rangel of Huntsville, TX, to the Texas Board of Pardons and Paroles for a term to expire February 1, 2019. The Board makes parole decisions for Texas prison inmates, determines conditions for parole and mandatory supervision and makes recommendations on clemency matters to the governor.

“Today we are pleased to share in the announcement of Governor Perry’s appointment of Federico Rangel to the position of Board Member – as one of our exemplary Parole Commissioners, we are proud to welcome Fred with our complete support and confidence,” stated Rissie Owens, Chair, Texas Board of Pardons and Paroles.

Mr. Rangel has been a Parole Commissioner since January, 2012. Additionally, he has a wealth of Criminal Justice as a past Director of the Angelina County Community Supervision, a Supervisor with the Montgomery County Juvenile Probation Department and past Project Coordinator for the Correctional Management Institute of Texas at Sam Houston State University. He is a lifetime member of the Texas Probation Association and a past member of the American Probation and Parole Association and the American Correctional Association.

Mr. Rangel has a Bachelor’s degree in Criminology and Corrections along with a Master’s Degree in Criminal Justice from Sam Houston State University.
